

NDDOT 2008 traffic safety calendar features N.D. athletes

Minnesota Viking Brooks Bollinger, along with other North Dakota athletes, has teamed up with a group of law enforcement officials from across the state to appear in the 2008 North Dakota Department of Transportation (NDDOT) Traffic Safety Calendar.

Bollinger, a Grand Forks native, appears on the cover of the calendar, while the various other athletes can be seen on the front of each month.

Each month highlights underage drinking and driving facts. Members of the University of North Dakota police, local police departments, sheriff's departments, Highway Patrol, and N.D. State College of Science Campus Police Department all appear in the calendar.

The calendar spotlights peace officers from Stark County, Billings County, Barnes County, Williams County, Sheridan County, Richland County, Ward County, Cass County, and Burleigh County; as well as Dickinson, Valley City, Williston, Beulah, Wahpeton, Rolette, West Fargo, Minot, Fargo, Jamestown, and Bismarck.
