Amendment to motor vehicle title law goes into effect Aug. 1

An amendment to an existing state law now requires owners to use their legal name when applying for a vehicle title. Application must be made by presenting a state-issued driver's license or non-driver identification card. Businesses will need to provide paper documentation to verify their legal name.

Motor Vehicle Division Director Linda Sitz said "The new amendment will improve the motor vehicle records process. Our goal is to provide our customers continued service and develop a consistent process in maintaining our database," she said.

The amended state law, Senate Bill 2150, goes into effect August 1.
