Hwy 1804 construction continues; motorists should note closure of Lookout Trail next week

The west approach of Lookout Trail in Bismarck will be closed at N.D. Highway 1804 beginning Tuesday, Sept. 8 and will remain closed through the week. The closure is part of the ongoing reconstruction project of a three-mile portion of N.D. Highway 1804 south of the University of Mary. The south approach of the trail will remain open. Motorists should use caution when traveling through this area and be aware of the construction workers, signage and markers.
