No Travel Advisory extended to Williston and surrounding areas

The North Dakota Department of Transportation (NDDOT) and the North Dakota Highway Patrol has extended the No Travel Advisory to Williston and surrounding areas due to high winds causing blowing snow, areas of near zero visibility, compacted snow and continuous ice on roadways. Motorists should not travel due to hazardous conditions which may make it unsafe to travel.

A No Travel Advisory is still in effect for north central North Dakota including the cities of Minot, Kenmare, Bottineau and Garrison.

A Travel Alert is also in effect for southwest, south central and southeast North Dakota, including Dickinson, Bismarck Jamestown, Valley City, Fargo, Wahpeton and surrounding areas due to blowing and drifting snow creating icy conditions and reduced visibility. Conditions are such that motorists can still travel Motorists are encouraged to reduce speeds and drive according to the conditions.

All travelers are encouraged to monitor road conditions as weather conditions occur and use caution while traveling. For road information, call 511 from any type of phone or go to the website: www.dot.nd.gov. NDDOT releases information to inform the public about travel conditions throughout the state. The three categories are as follows:

Please be advised that road condition information on 511 and the travel map is updated daily from 5 a.m. until 9 p.m. CDT. The road report is based upon the information available to the NDDOT at the time of preparation and is provided solely as a public service. Conditions may vary from those reported.

If you become stranded, motorists should stay with their vehicle and call 911 for emergency assistance.
