Portion of 52nd Avenue in Fargo to be closed Monday

Starting at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, March 2, drivers will experience periodic closures on the I-29 and 52nd Avenue ramps for the relocation of a house in south Fargo. Intermittent closures will also take place on 52nd Ave South from 25th Street to 45th Street.

Motorists are encouraged to avoid 52nd Avenue South in this area as traffic will be disrupted. The house move route will start in the 4600 block of 25th Street South and head south to 52nd Avenue. From there, the house will move west on 52nd Avenue to 45th Street. At this intersection the house will be moved off of the roadway to a nearby field.
