GENERAL REGULATIONS

Eligibility:

The educational grant of financial aid program is available to students who are enrolled in an undergraduate program in any North Dakota University System college or university. Students must be enrolled in an educational program that meets the recruitment needs and mission of the NDDOT. A few examples are: civil or construction engineering, engineering technology, and diesel technology. Students who are available for paid summer internships with the Department are preferred. Eligible women and minorities are encouraged to submit applications.

Current DOT employees are eligible for the financial aid if they have completed one year of course study, or have worked for the Department for at least two years.

Eligible candidates must apply for the grant of financial aid in order to be considered.

Terms:

Grant recipients may use proceeds of the grant for educational expenditures only. An individual may receive a grant of $1,000 per semester while they are enrolled in an appropriate degree program.

Upon graduation, recipients must agree to work for the Department for a period of time at least equal to the grant study period. Recipients, who do not accept the employment period with the Department or fail to complete the employment period, must repay the grant on a prorated basis at 6 percent interest.
