REAL ID Information

What is REAL ID?

Passed by Congress in 2005, the REAL ID Act enacted the 9/11 Commission's recommendation that the Federal Government "set standards for the issuance of sources of identification, such as driver licenses." The state legislature passed and Governor Burgum signed the final implementation bill for REAL ID during the 65th Legislative Session in 2017.

What does REAL ID do?

REAL ID implements security processes designed to reduce identity fraud and provide the highest certainty that the individual with the identity document in front of you is who he or she says he or she is. Documents scanned will verify birthplace, current residence, etc.

It prohibits Federal agencies from accepting driver licenses and identification cards from states that do not meet requirements for official purposes such as: boarding an airplane or obtaining access to a federal building.

What does REAL ID not do?

It does not create a federal database or federally controlled or issued identification document. The U.S. Passport does that.

It does not replace a passport used for international travel such as visiting Canada or other countries.

It does not include an RFID chip in it. The Enhanced Driver License (EDL) does have the chip in it which provides information to a federal database. North Dakota does not offer Enhanced Driver Licenses.

When do I need to have a REAL ID driver license?

Your present license remains valid until its expired date, as North Dakota has received a waiver from the US Department of Homeland Security. This means your current ND driver license and identification card is accepted for access into federal facilities, including military installations and boarding aircraft until May 3, 2023.

What does a REAL ID Driver License do?

It allows a North Dakota resident to use their driver license as a form of identification to complete domestic airline travel and access a federal facility such as a federal courthouse or airbase after May 3, 2023.

What happens to the information collected?

Unlike a passport, the REAL ID information is scanned and retained in the state driver license system. It is state data so it is kept in-state only. The federal REAL ID Act of 2005 has no requirement for this data to be shared with anyone. We do not share personal private information except as provided in NDCC 39-33.

The bill approved by the legislature in 2017 makes these documents "not part of the public record," so the security of the data is enhanced and unobtainable for non-official purposes.

What does the Opt-In feature mean?

The Opt-In Opt-Out feature enables you to have a choice on whether you want to get a REAL ID driver license or not. If you choose to Opt-In you will be able to use your driver license as a form of identification to complete domestic airline travel and access a federal facility.

The Opt-Out feature also lets you choose to Opt-Out of the REAL ID process and not obtain a REAL ID driver license. This means you will see no change in how you currently renew your driver license and you will not receive a REAL ID driver license. Some people may choose to Opt-Out because they plan to use their passport for identification when traveling or they don't plan on doing any domestic airline travel or accessing of a federal facility.
