

September 16, 2013

Lighting on Expressway Bridge between Bismarck and Mandan temporarily out of service

The overhead street lighting on Expressway Bridge between Bismarck and Mandan will be temporarily out of service until further notice. Motorists are reminded to drive with headlights on at all times. The lighting is expected to be fully operational later this week.